□ A Carpenters Right to Free Speech

Rank-and-file members of the St Louis Carpenters District Council are being warned of the penalties of wearing NO 57 hard hat stickers by their business representatives. The UBC leadership in St Louis is threatening these members with monetary fines and other disciplinary actions. These threats violate federal labor laws and a carpenters right to free speech. As a union carpenter if you decide to show your opposition to Nelson's 57 the Local 57 Facts team wants you to know there are places you can go for help. The thumbnail below contains a phone number that you can contact for assistance if your rights are violated:
